

We do NOT wish to have any changes made to our Indiana No-Call Law, particularly as it pertains to the "established business relationship" clause in the Federal No-Call Law. It has been nice to have privacy in our own home, and we do not wish to have this disrupted by any company we may have severed ties with in the past.